

Combe Martin Beach

We went for a walk from the town to the beach. We always on arrival at a new place go for a walk. We just beat the sunset. This small town of 2000 pop is essentially one long street in a valley. The rocks are extraordinarily interesting as can be seen from the examples enclosed.

There were very few people around. Most people who passed us were walking their dogs. Shops and cafes and pubs were closed. Thanks Boris. You don't have a clue about what you are doing.
